

IANAS

INDIANA ASSOCIATION OF NURSING STUDENTS

What is IANS?

Mission

The Indiana Association of Nursing Students is an organization focused on providing the development, knowledge, and support of student nurses to further enhance health care for all citizens.

IANAS 2018 Convention

When: January 26-27, 2018

Where: University of Indianapolis
1400 E Hanna Ave.
Indianapolis, IN 46227

What: Nursing Survival Guide

- NCLEX Review
- National Speakers
- 40+ Vendors
- Opportunities to Network

How to Become An Official Chapter

Step 1: A University with a Baccalaureate program must have 10 NSNA Members to apply to be a local chapter.

Step 2: Fill out and send in the Student Nurses' Association constituency form that can be found at www.nсна.org

Step 3: Forward your Student Nurses' Association's bylaws to our State Organization (IANAS).

Step 4: Once constituency status is achieved, your nursing students will have access to being involved at the state level, more educational opportunity for their community, and a place where they can continue to learn and grow.